OP System

Structured specifications become portable numerical contracts.

The numerical core runs directly or through a separate FlepiMoP2 provider. Cross-axis constraints remain metadata; independent equations and invariants supply numerical evidence.